The skill of drawing a portrait can be learnt and developed. These art classes will establish and develop the fundamental principles that form the foundation of being a good portrait artist.

Tutor Highlights

In this course you will learn:

- The dimensions and proportions of the head and face
- How to create a likeness of your subject
- Tips and hints to mastering facial features, eyes, nose, mouth, ears and eyebrows
- Shading and shadowing to create realism and interest

This course will also continue to develop your skills and techniques in observational drawing.

Analysis and breakdown of the individual features will be an integral part of the class, with special emphasis being placed upon their relation to the whole. Structural concepts such as planes and construction will be emphasized, as well as the techniques of tonal drawing.

Observation of shapes and the identification of the unique character of each model/photo will be taught as a means of capturing a likeness.
